

Points to note:

- Mum continues her 10 day self-isolation period despite receiving a negative PCR test (this would also apply if she received a negative Lateral Flow Test result)
- Child 2 can stop self-isolating and return to school after 10 days, despite that someone in the household (Dad) has tested positive and is currently self-isolating.